

Science in Society

17-18 June, 2022

Registration closed – online participation possible

Please get in touch at conferences@philos.uni-hannover.de

Friday, 17 June

9.00 – 9.30

Registration and Welcome

9.30 – 10.45

Jutta Schickore (Indiana University)

Causation, observation, and experiment: Reflections on practical inquiry in the German lands around 1800

11.05 – 12.20

Gary Hatfield (University of Pennsylvania)

Phenomenally Converging Railway Tracks: A Misperception?

13.30 – 14.45

Eric Winsberg (University of South Florida)

Trust in Science vs. Trust in Experts: Lessons from a Pandemic

15.05 – 16.20

Tim O'Connor (Indiana University)

Conscious Knowers and Doers in the Cosmos

16.40 – 17.55

Quill R. Kukla (Georgetown University/LUH)

Public Artifacts and the Epistemology of Collective Material Testimony

19.00

Conference Dinner (6 Sinne Riverside, Burgstr. 14A)

Saturday, 18 June

9.30 – 10.45

Anjan Chakravartty (University of Miami)

Philosophy of Science, Science Education, and Public Understanding

11.05 – 12.20

Sabina Leonelli (University of Exeter)

Does Open Science Need Philosophy?

13.30 – 14.45

Stephen M. Gardiner (University of Washington)

Generationally Parochial Geoengineering: Early Warning Signs and a Standing Threat

15.05 – 16.20

Philip Kitcher (Columbia University)

Scientific Progress and the Search for Truth

16.20 – 17.30

Closing Reception

18.30 – open end

Party at 'Fiasko' (Wilhelm-Bluhm-Str. 40)

Organizers:

Prof. Dr. Mathias Frisch
Dr. Tanja Recknitzer
Dr. Donal Khosrowi

Funded by

Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft
German Research Foundation

gesellschaft für analytische
philosophie

Deutsche Gesellschaft
für Philosophie e.V.